

ENGAGEMENT AND PROXY VOTING

Plenisfer Investments SGR S.p.A. (hereinafter the "Company") adopted an Engagement Policy (hereinafter the "Engagement Policy"), which describes the ways in which the Company integrates the commitment as shareholder / bondholder into its investment process. Further, the Company adopted a Proxy Voting Policy (hereinafter the "Proxy Voting Policy") detailing how the Company addresses the rights with respect to voting on proxies for such financial instruments held by client funds.

The Company also adopted the Plenisfer Investment Sustainability Policy, reflecting the Company's approach to considering environmental, social and corporate governance factors (hereinafter "ESG") in the investment process.

The Engagement Policy is informed by the so called SHRD II Directive [(EU) 2017/828] (hereinafter "SHRD II") – transposed at Italian national level into Legislative Decree no. 58/1998 (hereinafter "TUF") and by Consob Resolution no. 21623 into the Regolamento Emittenti. Further, the Engagement, Proxy Voting and Investment Sustainability Policies take into consideration the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation ("SFDR" Regulation (EU) 2019/2088).

Engagement Policy Summary

For Plenisfer, the Engagement Policy stems not only from the regulatory obligations but importantly reflects the Company's commitment towards greater understanding of governance, financial and sustainability / ESG factors for the issuers in which the Company invests for its clients. Engagement activities may be carried out periodically to promote and disseminate best practices or to analyse and discuss critical issues with issuers held within client portfolios.

The Engagement Policy sets out measures for:

- tracking corporate events (corporate actions);
- interacting with companies to better understand and where appropriate, express views on certain aspects impacting company dynamics and valuation;
- ensuring that voting rights are exercised in accordance with the investment objectives and policy of the funds concerned;
- preventing or managing any conflict of interest resulting from the exercise of voting rights.

The engagement activity carried out by the Company include:

- monitoring: aiming to exploit meetings with the issuers in the portfolio to add data and information useful for a more informed evaluation of the issuer;
- awareness-raising: consisting of meetings with issuers (invested in) in order to understand and in some cases influence the issuers' practices on specific issues related to the industry and type of business to which they belong;

- voting: participating in (or not participating in) issuer shareholder / bondholder meetings to influence the governance and strategic choices presented to such meetings.

The Company adopts a "targeted" approach that involves the selection of companies on which to focus engagement activities, taking into consideration:

- the usefulness of the interaction with respect to the interests of the client portfolios;
- the possibility of influencing decisions in relation to the holdings.

Proxy Voting Policy Summary

The Company decides whether to exercise voting rights in the exclusive interest of the funds managed and their participants. To this end, the Company evaluates the voting rights using the following guidelines:

- not being bound by voting or blocking syndicate, unless it is in the best interest of the client portfolios and the underlying investors of such portfolios;
- exercising voting rights in total autonomy and independence from any company belonging to the Generali Group;
- not exercising voting rights if it relates to companies directly and / or indirectly controlling the Company;
- not delegating decisions as to exercising voting rights to other companies directly and / or indirectly controlling the Company.

The exercise of voting rights always takes place in an informed manner, based on the information published by the issuers, the financial media, market practitioners and / or advisors specialized in proxy voting. The Company considers any costs or encumbrances associated with exercising a vote in its decision as to whether to exercise the voting rights.
